3 Your Neighborhood

A: American Man
B: Japanese Woman

A: Good morning, Yuna.
B: Good morning, William.
What's up?
A: Nothing much. What's up with you?
B: Nothing really..., just getting ready for today's interview. You ready?
A: Yep!

A: (1) Do you live around here?

B: I live about 45 minutes from here, in Kashiba, Nara.
A: Kashiba? Small town?
B: Yeah, pretty small, but it's very nice.

A: (2) What's your neighborhood¹ like²?

B: It's mostly a residential area³. There are also a lot of farms and mountains.
A: Sounds very peaceful and quiet.
B: Yeah, it's nice but it can be a little boring.

A: (3) Can you tell me about your neighbors⁴?

B: Sure. My neighbors are pretty friendly. We always chat when we see each other. We even used to⁵ barbecue together when I was little.
A: That's cool. You don't barbecue together anymore?
B: Not so much. I guess I'm kind of busy now.
A: OK.

A: (4) What's your home like?

B: It's a two-story house⁶. Um..., kind of western style. We do have a little tatami room, though.
A: Do you have a yard⁷?
B: Yeah. That's where we used to barbecue. My mom has a garden and she grows some vegetables and flowers.
A: Sounds nice. I live in a little apartment⁸ in the city. The view outside my window is a big, concrete wall. (haha)

A: (5) What are some fun things to do in your neighborhood?

B: Uh...,⁹ nothing really. It's kind of boring. So, I usually hang out¹⁰ in Osaka with my friends.
A: What do you do in Osaka?
B: Um...,¹¹ usually just go to a restaurant or go shopping. Sometimes we'll go to a movie.
A: Sounds good.

A: (6) How do you get to school?

B: I take the train.
A: How long is the ride?
B: About 30, 35 minutes. The station is a bit far from campus, though. It takes about 15 minutes to walk.
A: Well, I guess that's good exercise.

A: (7) What do you usually do on your commute¹² to school?

B: I usually just listen to music.
A: Oh, yeah? Who do you like?
B: Well, recently I'm getting into¹³ some classic rock, like The Rolling Stones and The Beatles.
A: That's cool.

A: (8) What's something you don't like about your neighborhood?

B: Um..., it's a little boring! In the summer it's really hot and humid¹⁴. The cicadas¹⁵ are really annoying¹⁶, too.
A: Yeah, they can be really loud¹⁷ sometimes.

A: (9) Where would you like to live in the future?

B: Hawaii would be nice!
A: Yeah, I'd love to live there too!
B: I'd need a good job, though. I hear¹⁸ it's very expensive.

A: Yeah, it must cost a lot to live there.

A: (10) Would you like to live in a mansion¹⁹ someday?

B: Like a real mansion, with chandeliers²⁰ and stuff²¹?
A: Yeah, like a super rich house.
B: Sure! Why not? If I became super rich, I'd buy a mansion in Hawaii.
A: Could I come and visit you?
B: Of course! You could live there as the pool boy²²! (haha)
A: (Haha) OK! Yeah! That sounds great.
